Handwriting practice lines for the number 7. The first row shows a horizontal line with a solid segment followed by dotted segments, with purple dots marking the start of each segment. The second row shows a slanted line starting from an orange dot on the bottom line, with dotted lines and orange dots for continuation. The third row shows a full number 7 with a horizontal bar, with dotted lines and blue dots for continuation. The fourth row shows a dotted number 7 for tracing, with purple dots marking the start of each stroke. Below these are several empty handwriting lines for independent practice.
